

PPD Optics Fabrication Technician Job Description – 4/10/2023

Perkins Precision Developments (PPD) is a small, growing business with a positive, family atmosphere, conveniently located near I25 and Hwy 66. The company culture is team and career oriented, where every individual is valued and contributes to the success of the whole group.

Employment Type	Full-Time
Education	High school diploma or equivalent
Experience	1-2 years hands-on or participation in a machining or optics technology program

Essential Job Functions include the following, but are not limited to:

- Produce products to laser quality finish standards and with minimal scrap or rework
 - Understand written work instructions and schematics
 - Process (grind, lap and polish) glass/crystalline materials
 - Cleaning, handling and assembly of optical components, laser crystals and opto-electronic components
 - Proper handling and packaging of critical and fragile optical components
 - On the job training
- Keep all records and log books
- Keep work area neat and organized

Qualifications

- Must be detail conscious and work with accuracy
- Possess good mathematical skills
- Basic computer skills
- Basic mechanical aptitude
- Communicate well in a team environment

Experience: 1-2 years of experience/training in a similar or relevant position

Salary: Depends on qualifications and experience. Please contact us to discuss!

Perkins Precision Developments must comply with the International Traffic in Arms Regulations (ITAR) issued by the US Dept of State, Directorate of Defense Controls. Because of ITAR, PPD limits employment to US citizens or lawful permanent residents of the United States.

PPD is an Equal Opportunity Employer.